floating fund

STEPHEN MURRAY-SMITH writes: We are genuinely sorry to announce this issue an increase in subscription rates from $8 a year to $12, and from $2 to $3 for single copies. The editorial board has recently had a hard look at our financial situation and finds it alarming, all the more so as we have discovered the losses National Press are voluntarily bearing on the printing of this magazine. We have started a major new subscription campaign, which we hope readers will support, and are taking other steps to reduce expenditure. Our payments to our writers, for instance, will have to be watched carefully: they were $1365 last issue and $1415 the issue before, and though they are little enough when spread out thin we are told that they are generous compared with what our kind of magazine can usually afford to pay. But the grants we receive have been eroded year by year, while costs have risen fast — well, you know how fast.

Again we pay all honour to our readers who have supported us for twenty-five years with their donations. I know of no similar phenomenon anywhere. This issue's total for the floating fund is down on most, but is a great help to us, both financially and in terms of our morale.

$22 DB; $12 BH, J-W, IMcI, GT, RE, RC, SB, EP, CH, WK; $8 BR, BC-R; $7 WW, LB, ED, ACJ, FB, JR; $5 DM, SMcC; $4 RH, VC, JMcK, LR, PR; $3 EH; $2.50 NG; $2 JS, DA, BG, RS, EP, KF, FA, JR, FM, JM, KS, HN, KMcE, RO, DR, LC, DC, PA, NK, TS, WC, BR, AH, JW, EG, RC, BF, JS, ME, MS, RZ, GD, LH, DT, GM, ER, MD, WF, GD; $1 JA. Total: $314.50.
